WILLIE JOLLEY

THE WILL TO WIN!

Winners think differently than losers. They possess certain qualities that separate them from the masses, including a strong positive mental attitude, commitment, knowledge, and a hunger for greatness. They also understand that failure is part of the success process, and the ability to embrace it, and grow from it, is a sign of greatness. Using real life stories from his own life, and those of others, Willie Jolley shares basic success principles that can make the difference between mediocrity and greatness. He explores a variety of areas including persistence, teamwork, customer service, overcoming obstacles, building your desire, and more.

Willie Jolley has inspired Millions with his motivation & his music!" He is truly a renaissance man, who is an award winning speaker, singer, best selling author, media personality and national columnist!
